ISLANDS AT A GLANCE

Perdika Village, Aegina Day 1

Around 10km south of Aeginas main town, you will reach Perdika, a tranquil, traditional fishing village with much exploration to offer. As you wander through the narrow alleyways and stairs of the village, you will come across exquisite fish tavernas serving up fresh local produce, as well as several cafes, bars and ouzeries. Take a stroll along the cobbled promenade lined with palm trees and benches to sit whilst you admire the view of the Aegean Sea.

Close by is the uninhabited Moni Island which is an attraction not to be missed, especially for its magnificent swimming and snorkeling and on land wildlife such as goats, peacocks and deer.

Things to do

Dine at one of the fish tavernas offering delicious seafood or enjoy swimming and snorkeling on the beach or at Moni Island.

Facilities

Mooring fee, water, electricity, ATM, fuel ,supermarket, free anchoring, restaurants, bars, Ice, Gift Shop, pharmacies, hospitals

Poros Day 2

Approaching the town, you'll sail through a narrow, picturesque channel that separates the island of Poros from the Peloponnese peninsula. Pine, olive and lemon trees blanket the hillsides and reach the sandy beaches. You'll see a mountainous green landscape overlooking the red-topped roofs that line the streets of Poros Town. A host of cafes, bars and souvenir shops line the docks of Poros Town, but the best are located around the town square near the museum and town hall.

Majestic vistas await from the top of the island's pine-forested interior. Consider hiring a scooter to further explore this area. At the top of the island's highest hill, you'll find the historic clock of Poros, a trademark of the island that is visible from everywhere. For a more historical adventure, visit Moni Zoodochou Pigis, an 18th century monastery built around the island's only spring.

If you're up for a good party, the most famous nightclub on the island is Poseidon, which is located on a hillside overlooking the town. The party starts at 1 p.m. and continues until the wee morning hours.

Things to do

Hire a scooter and explore the island. Relax on beautiful beaches like Megalo Neorio and Monastiriou. Dance the night away at the famous nightclub Poseidon.

Facilities

There are numerous bars and restaurants throughout Poros Town. Provisions, fuel, water and ice are also available.

Hydra Day 3

Hydra is a distinctively charming "must do" itinerary stop. The welcoming culture, architecture and beautifully tranquil sea-side setting of Hydra have long been an attraction to travelers seeking unique experiences off the beaten path. Here, donkeys and walking are the primary means of transportation – cars and even bicycles are not permitted! Hydra is a place where you will truly slip into the relaxing Mediterranean way of life. The town has a reputation for serving superior Grecian cuisine; pictorial beaches perfect for swimming, snorkeling and sunbathing; and the intriguing history. Here you'll see elegant mansions of a bygone era, historic monasteries and museums.

Things to do

Excellent dining with traditional cuisine; historical sites; great snorkeling, diving and swimming; people-watching; hiking.

Facilities

Market for local food, drinks and souvenirs. Water. Bakery.

Hydra

Methana Day 4

The peninsula of Methana displays stunning volcanic landscape emerging from the sea, covered in dense vegetation, flora and fauna, as well as picturesque coastal villages. If you are looking for an adventurous and challenging experience, you can take a 25-minute hike up to the lip of the volcano and take in the mysterious surroundings.

When you reach the volcanic peninsula, you will come across a charming fishing village called Agios Georgios. Here, you can enjoy the natural spa with thermal baths or visit the renovated hydrotherapy spa.

Things to do

Head to islands volcanic beaches or the natural thermal baths for ultimate relaxation. Or if you fancy adventure, follow the walking pathways up to the crater of the 'sleeping volcano'.

Facilities

Mooring fee, water, electricity, restaurants, supermarkets, rent car, ATM, fuel, pharmacies.

Epidaurus Town, Mainland Day 5

Epidaurus signifies one of the most important ancient sites in Greece, with the towns historical theatre (c. 340-330 B.C.) which is listed as a UNESCO world heritage site. Since the 1950s, every summer there are many performances as part of a festival programme – well worth a visit. The Epidaurus area also offers beautiful seaside villages with pristine beaches ideal for snorkeling and swimming. Scuba diving is exceptional, where you may discover ancient treasures. If you would rather explore inland, follow the walking paths lined with ancient ruins, orange and olive groves, or dine at one of the fish tavernas to tantalize the taste buds.

Things to do

Admire the acoustics of the ancient theatre; take a hike in the country and explore more ancient ruins or head to the beaches and enjoy watersports.

Facilities

Ice, water, and fuel (upon request) are available near the town dock. Further into town, additional facilities including provisioning, ATMs, restaurants, taxis, gift shops and more.

Epidaurus Theatre

This massive outdoor theatre, also known as the Sanctuary of Asclepius, was built from limestone back in the 4th century BC. Starting from the circular stage at the bottom, 55 rows extend outward and providing seating for up to 14,000 people. But, it's not so much the size that's impressed so many visitors throughout history. It's the acoustics, revered for being some of the most exceptional in the world. Test it out for yourself with a number of fun activities. Venture high in the stands and you can literally hear a pin drop from the stage. It works the other way too. Stand on the stage, whisper a few words and listen as they echo back off the surrounding limestone.

Marina Zea Day 6

This 4.7-square-mile facility is the epicenter of everything from coffee shops to bars, cafes, markets and more. Stroll along the waterfront and watch as the sun shimmers off the glistening Bay of Zea. If you've got some time, there are also plenty of things to do surrounding city of Piraeus. Get a fascinating glimpse of Grecian history at the Archaeological Museum of Piraeus or the Nautical Museum of Greece; marvel at the massive Church of Saint Nicholas and its beautifully intricate interior; or pull up a chair at a harbor side café and watch as the boats move in and out of the bay.

Things to do

Walk along the waterfront and choose from a variety of bars, restaurants and shops. Enjoy the sights and dining in the surrounding town of Piraeus. There are several places to each along the scenic coasts of Mikrolimano and Piraiki including sumptuous seafood restaurants and harbor side tavernas.
